Why is it that we always have a dry spell right in the middle of the strawberry season?

A dispatch from abroad conveys the information that French women are wearing shorter and more transparent skirts this season and also that they have discarded stockings. One ticket to Paris, please.

FARMERS AND THE PARCEL POST

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside appears an editorial showing how farmers are not taking full advantage of the parcel post. Following is an extract:

"The farmers are not making the best use possible of the parcel post. That is a recognized fact. They are getting enormous numbers of packages from the cities, but they are not selling by mail. Probably they will do more of this as time goes by. They are not prone to jump into new things very rapidly. Many of them have not as yet thought of making use of the new system of marketing. Some, however, are advertising in city papers, and no doubt are building up connections which will be good for them and for the city people."

THE JUNE AMERICAN MAGAZINE

In the June American Magazine "Eddie" Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics, whom "Johnny" McGaw calls the greatest baseball player in the world, writes an article entitled "Connie Mack and his Mackmen," in which he describes his experiences in professional baseball under the direction of Connie Mack, the manager of the Athletics and probably the greatest baseball general in the business. The article is full of stories and inside facts about the National game.

In the same issue a former newspaper man, who became a victim of the opium habit and is now a convict in a penitentiary, contributes an account of his dreadful experiences under the title, "A Modern Opium Eater." Dr. Charles K. Taylor, writing under the caption, "Your Boy and His Muscles," presents many valuable suggestions as to the best exercises for young boys. Ray Stannard Baker writes another letter from the field in his new series entitled "Seeing America." A husband, writing "A Husband's Story," describes interesting adventures in the marriage relation, and an undertaker, writing under the title, "The Man No-body Eaves," records some of his experiences.

ROOSEVELT TO CALL ON WILSON

The President Asked the Ex-President to Luncheon

Washington, May 25.—Colonel Roosevelt will be received by President Wilson at the White House tomorrow. The President invited the colonel to lunch with him, but Mr. Roosevelt found it impossible to reach Washington in time. He sent word, however, he would be delighted to call on the President in the afternoon.

Colonel Roosevelt's visit to the White House will be his first since 1910, and the second since he left the executive mansion as President. On his former call he did not see President Taft, who was out of the city.

They were covered up for several hours, but when the wrappings and lumber were removed from around them there were revealed some of the most beautiful up-to-date prices of furniture you ever looked at. Go see the new goods at Bob Cailways.

VISITED PEONY FIELDS

Among those who motored to Sarcoxie, Sunday, to visit the Wild Brothers' peony fields were Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Baylor, B. E. Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meagher, John Walsh and family, S. A. Chapell and family, J. J. Davis and family and Dr. Russell and family.

They were delighted with their trip. The peony fields occupy sixty acres of these magnificent flowers and they are now at the height of their beauty. Hundreds of automobile loads from every direction were there.

CAPTAIN MILLS AND WIFE SURPRISED

The children and grandchildren of Capt. and Mrs. S. C. Mills gave them a very pleasant surprise Saturday. They were taken for an automobile ride Saturday afternoon. On returning home they found their relatives assembled and a splendid meal spread in the dining room.

They presented Mr. and Mrs. Mills with a comfortable couch. There were twenty-six present, being the families of C. C. and W. A. Mills, Geo. J. C. Wilhelm and W. S. Lewis, Miss Nellie Mills and Wm. Lewis.

ENTERTAINED GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kolkmeier, of Jefferson City; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Meyerhoffer, of St. Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stricker, of Joplin; Mrs. Allie E. Poundstone, of Joplin; Mrs. R. T. Brite, of Peirce City, took dinner, Sunday with Mrs. C. H. Ring, after which all went to Peirce City and took supper with Mrs. Brite. They had all been in attendance at the Rebekah Grand lodge at Carthage.

Mr. and Mrs. Kolkmeier spent the night with Mrs. Ring, then departed for their home Monday morning.

MISS SNIDER GIVES LUNCHEON

One of the most attractive social functions of last week was the luncheon given by Miss Lola Snider, Friday afternoon, at her home on Euclid avenue.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with fragrant red and pink roses. Four tables of players enjoyed the afternoon at progressive rook.

An elegant two course luncheon was beautifully served to the invited guests, who were: Mesdames A. E. Spratley, Arthur Anderson, J. R. Snider, Solon Wright, and Ernest Johnson, of Collinsville, Ok.; Misses Clara Durnil, Letha Jeffries, Meda Campbell, Leta Russey, Mabel Wormington, Amanda Perriman, Christine Otterman, Janice Snider, Rosamond Anderson, Naomi Leake and Nelle Johnson, of Odessa.

L. T. Temple and family have returned from a visit at Neodesha, Kan.

MORE BIRTHS THAN DEATHS IN MISSOURI

There was a total of 3,461 deaths in Missouri in February according to statistics compiled by U. A. McBride, statistician of the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health. Of the total number, 1,000 males and 1,552 females and 3,187 whites and 274 negroes.

Pneumonia leads all other diseases in number of deaths, 560 resulting from it. Tuberculosis of the lungs claimed 402 and other forms of tuberculosis, 60. Cancer caused 165 deaths.

Other leading causes of death were: Diseases of the nervous system, 226; diseases of the heart, 409; other diseases of the respiratory system, 102; typhoid fever, 35; accidents, 121; suicide, 46.

Births numbered 6,216. Of these, 3,292 were boys, 2924 girls and 6,066 white and 158 negroes the greatest historical play ever staged; to be reproduced in

Forest Park, Saint Louis May 28, 29, 30 and 31, 1914

A cast of seven thousand performers will reproduce scenes of absorbing interest in the history of Saint Louis and the Southwest, such as: The Mound Builders at Work, Indian Dance and Battles, The DeSoto Expedition, The Landing of LaSalle, The Building of Saint Louis, Transfer of the Louisiana Purchase, Lewis-Clarke Expedition, Scenes of the Civil War. The history of the Southwest will be re-enacted from the days of the Mound Builders to those of the Civil War; all of it in correct costumes, by well drilled performers, and in a beautiful open air setting, with real water, representing the Mississippi River. Don't fail to go; and be sure your ticket reads over the
